

SPEEDING AUTOS CRASH AND BLOW UP, INJURING SIX

Lydia Locke, Singer, Most Seriously Hurt in Collision at Street Crossing.

BOTH CARS BURNED.

One Chauffeur, Who Was Using His Employer's
Car, Is Arrested.

Two Halloween parties, with jeweled women wearing tinsel "fool-caps," singing, laughing and scattering confetti, terminated abruptly early to-day when a great black touring car and an equally big and powerful gray car, both travelling at a lively rate, came together at right angles at Twenty-third street and Third avenue.

The impact of the two cars scattered the merry celebrators over the pavement. The black car rebounded, its engine still going. Then, like a vicious live thing, it sprang at the gray machine again and the two "struggled" to the southwest corner of the street intersection, where the black car exploded and caught fire.

The young woman is now in Bellevue Hospital. She says she is Lydia Locke of St. Louis, in New York looking for an engagement in grand opera, and stopping temporarily with friends at No. 29 West One Hundred and Eighth street. An X-ray photograph taken in the hospital to-day shows that she is suffering from several fractured ribs and a dislocated shoulder. She is the most seriously injured of those who were caught in the collision. The hospital authorities have sent news of the accident to her sister, Mrs. Nellie Smith of No. 314 South Grand avenue, St. Louis.

Her male companion, who lay stunned on the pavement beside her, was also taken to Bellevue and remains there to-day. At first he gave the name of Wright Damer and said he was a chauffeur, living at No. 262 West Forty-fifth street.

Investigation proved that a Mrs. Hadley lives at this address and rents rooms. Mrs. Hadley called at the hospital to-day and identified the injured man as Wright Dana, manager of the International Press Service, in the Astor Theatre Building, No. 131 Broadway. He is not dangerously hurt.

From beneath the burning auto body a handsome young woman, wearing many diamonds, was wrangled just before the flames reached her silk evening gown. She had been a passenger in the gray car.

Miss Locke and Dana had been at Little Hungary, in Houston street, where a gay Halloween celebration was on. So frequent had been the calls for taxis there that the starter telephoned to Harry Fried of No. 109 Suffolk street to bring his automobile and "help out."

Fried responded with his gray touring car. Miss Locke, Dana and two young women got in. They were in festive spirit and carried shimmering favors from the Halloween celebration. At Nineteenth street and Second avenue the two unnamed young women got out of the machine. With Fried at the wheel and Dana and Miss Locke in the tonneau, the car sped up Second avenue to Twenty-third street, turning west at that point.

James Collins of No. 137 East One Hundred and Nineteenth street is chauffeur for Julius W. Robbins of No. 33 East Seventy-fourth street. Robbins was at a Halloween celebration and told Collins to call for him at 1 o'clock. The chauffeur meantime determined to have a little celebration of his own. He had in the car with him Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers of No. 263 West Twenty-fifth street and another couple.

CAR CAME FROM NORTH AT TERRIFIC SPEED.
Policeman Weyensreider was standing under the elevated structure at Third avenue and Twenty-second street. He saw an automobile coming toward him from the north at such speed that even when the machine was still two blocks away the policeman moved to get out of its path.

He had taken but a couple of steps when he saw a gray car shoot directly in front of the black car at Twenty-third street. A second more and he saw human figures tossed all about the street and the two cars "wrestling."

Weyensreider ran to the scene of the accident. Policeman Smith and Thomas Howe, a newsboy, beat him there. They had been in Twenty-third street. As Weyensreider ran the black machine exploded and burst into flames. Both cars had been whirled about until they were alongside and faced north.

The policeman observed the shimmer of silk under the burning machine and dragged out Miss Locke. The burning auto set fire to the elevated structure and an alarm was turned in. Battalion Chief Skelly came with the apparatus. A stream of water was turned on the burning car, but did little good and the firemen dumped dirt from a near by excavation onto the flames, extinguishing them.

At that moment an automobile patrol from Old Slip station passed at the corner. Miss Locke, Dana, Fried and Mrs. and Mrs. Rogers were bundled into it and rushed to Bellevue. The couple who had been with Mr. and Mrs. Rogers in the black car were not slightly hurt. They hurried away without giving their names.

Rogers and his wife were allowed to go after their injuries, which were slight, had been dressed. So was Fried. But when the doctors had fixed up the cuts and bruises on Collins' head and face he was taken to the East Twenty-second street police station and locked up on a charge of felonious assault by reckless driving of an automobile. Later he was taken to the prison ward in Bellevue.

ONLY 30 MEN INDICTED FOR REGISTRATION FRAUDS.

Smallest Number in Years Handed Down To-Day by Two Grand Juries.

The usual ante-election crop of indictments for fraudulent registration was returned to-day in the Court of General Sessions. Two Grand Juries which have been investigating complaints filed by citizens, political organizations and police officers who have been checking the registration lists reported to Judge Swan with about thirty indictments.

Despite the loud cries of the Bull Moose people and the ransacking of the Second Assembly District by Chem and Gene Driscoll, the number of indictments for alleged fraudulent registration is the smallest in many years. Experience has shown that very few of these indictments stand, being based largely on mistakes of poll clerks or registration officers.

The persons against whom indictments were returned to-day will not be prosecuted until they appear to vote. Bench warrants were issued and will be instructed to policemen to be served at polling places on election day.

FEEL BULLY! HEAD CLEAR, STOMACH SWEET, BOWELS RIGHT—"CASCARETS"

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, costive tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, and are all worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely dosing yourself every few days with salts, cathartic pills, castor oil and other harsh irritants? Cascarets immediately cleanse and sweeten the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. A Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel cheerful and bully for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

GET OUT YOUR OVERCOAT!

You'll Need It To-Morrow, the Weather Man Says.

It's time to get out that fall Henry you got a little earlier in this deep season, for the season of rains and uncertainty and more rain is over, and belated Autumn is due to make its bow to-morrow.

Every indication, to the weather man's way of thinking, is for a crisp, clear, fresh, cloudless Saturday, with a brand of air circulating between the skyscrapers that will set the messenger boys whistling and make the chestnut man more popular.

This is the technical way of saying it: "Rain, followed by clearing and colder to-night. Saturday fair and colder; high south, shifting to northwest winds. Southwest storm warnings, Hatteras to Eastport. Storm over lower Lake regions moving eastward. Increasing southerly winds, shifting to high northwest to-night on the Middle Atlantic coast and on the New England coast by Saturday morning."

"Mrs. Wallaby called Mrs. Wombat a deliberate and unqualified fibber."
"Dear me! have women come to that?"

At the Bank of England or on the Strand (there are Regal shops in both districts), you could not find a pair of shoes more precisely correct than this BOND STREET MODEL.

Note its plain-stitched, narrow tip—note its flat tread, low arch, low heel and toe. Button style is the ultra correct thing this Fall.

There are other niceties of workmanship and finish about this shoe, but you will appreciate them better by coming to the shop and asking to be shown BOND STREET.

When Is Food Fresh?

Food is fresh just as long as nature's volatile flavors remain undisturbed. Corn on the cob fresh from the field is REAL corn. Corn via the farmer's wagon, delayed on the freight station, delayed on the box car, delayed on the jobber's truck, delayed in the market place loses its fresh flavor in proportion to the delay.

fruit. Their QUALITY is another matter.

Premier Pure Foods emphasize this truth in an extraordinary manner. If you would be convinced the only thing necessary is an honest test.

The Sign of the Star makes it convenient for you to put these claims to the proof. On hundreds of independent grocery stores you will find a white and gold star on a blue background, telling the story of that grocer's interest in the Premier Pure Food movement. In all such stores at least the following six Premier Pure Foods are obtainable:

Premier Canned Corn
From the State of Maine only, where the world's finest sweet corn grows. Per can 15c.

Premier Macaroni
Made in Europe from the Russian Targanog and hard African wheat. Very different from domestic macaroni. Full pounds 12c.

Premier Perri-Walla Tea
Pure India and Ceylon, uncolored and unadorned. Real Tea. Per ½ lb. canister 30c.

Premier Fruit Jams
Nothing but fresh ripe fruit and pure sugar, pound for pound. Currant Jelly and Orange Marmalade by the same honest, old-fashioned rule. Per jar 25c.

Premier Olives
The rich, firm, crisp, meaty kind, good when they come out of the bottle because they were good when they went in. 25c to $1.00.

Premier Roasted Coffee
In sealed canisters, preserving its fresh flavor indefinitely. Per lb. 35c.

Premier Pure Foods are legally pure, plus a little more: they are honestly pure. Their quality is the BIG thing.

A crab-apple is as "pure" as a greening. A hothouse tomato is as "pure" as the perfect Jersey

A Six Months' Crusade Against Pains, Aches and Soreness

Against Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Bruises, Chills, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest.

We have maintained the MUSTEROLE crusade for the past few years throughout most of the United States with wonderful results. As fast as we could we have gone into new sections, lifting the burden of pain from thousands.

We come to your section now to tell you all about MUSTEROLE—the magic ointment—the clean, pure, white ointment that does all the work of the old fashioned mustard plaster without the discomfort and without the blister.

MUSTEROLE means mustard oil combined with other simples used in home medicines. Millions of jars are sold annually. It is used in hospitals and in thousands of homes and is frankly recommended by nurses and doctors. Ask your physician about it!

MUSTEROLE has a delicious, comforting, soothing effect. You simply rub

THE MUSTEROLE COMPANY, Cleveland, Ohio

"Am recommending your Musterole to my patients every day."—Dr. J. P. FREY, Chicago.
"I think Musterole is fine to rub on anywhere. Where there are occasions to use mustard in any form, Musterole is much better in my respect than the mustard plaster. I shall now keep it on hand for ready use at any time."—J. G. EMERY, M. D., South Waterborough, Maine.

MUSTEROLE on briskly and the pain is gone.

MUSTEROLE is so penetrating that it enters the pores at once—stops the sharp twinges—brings ease and complete relief—and breaks up the congestion. Many use it to prevent pneumonia.

Mustard has been a family remedy for centuries. MUSTEROLE is what Twentieth Century science has made of the remedy that your mother and grandmother depended on.

Thousands who have used MUSTEROLE will gladly tell you what wonderful relief it brings.

We are going to tell you twice a week in this paper, for months to come, all about MUSTEROLE—

At your druggist's—in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Accept no substitute. If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to us and we will mail you a jar, postage prepaid.

We constantly receive hundreds of testimonials from doctors and nurses.

"I am using Musterole in my own case. Been down with grippe for past two weeks and it has caused bronchial trouble. I find this loosens up the tubes and gives me much relief, so I can rest better at night. I am prescribing it here and in Philadelphia. I got several people here interested; now they keep it constantly in the house."—ELIAS WILDMAN, M. D., Haddon Heights, N. J. (42)

L. R. Corsets Mould the Figure On the Natural Lines of Beauty

individual corset need.

Many women are satisfied with a corset because it is comfortable.

Their lines have become its lines and they deem it a perfect fit.

Such women are non-progressive. They are content to let well enough alone. The corset which takes the shape of the wearer is not a good corset.

L. R. Corsets Do Not Lose Their Lines

Very gradually, almost imperceptibly, the figure begins to mould itself to the L. R. corset. Long lines are developed, grace and naturalness are achieved. All this without the least discomfort.

L. R. corsets are designed for individuals. A woman who buys the L. R. model best suited to her figure is as well corseted as the woman who has her corset For she has a corset that supplies her own

Some Individual L. R. Models

$6 L. R. is of silk figured batiste. The medium bust and long hips produce the graceful lines required by fashion.

$3 L. R. is an excellent corset for the woman past her youth. But low under the arms, not too long over the hips and extremely light in weight, is above all a comfort corset.

$3 Perfect Fitting L. R. keeps its shape. A corset for active women. $1.50 L. R. Housework corset—is heavily boned but not too long for comfort.
